Customer Feedback

When we took over the Arabian Horse it was our first venture into the pub trade. Bestway Wholesale came along and assisted us in putting together our wine list by hosting a wine tasting evening, enabling us to choose the right quality and price structure. Wine sales have now increased significantly year on year.

The Arabian Horse, Leeds

By using Batleys I now have access to a vast range of alcohol products, on par with the market place in pricing, meaning I have a one stop shop. I have a dedicated Sales Manager in charge of my pricing structure and a telesales contact who is dedicated to phoning for my orders at a time convenient to me, and in many cases going above and beyond for me and my business. My delivery schedule was organised with the rep and so far has been adhered to. The drivers are helpful and pleasant and nothing seems to phase them. I would recommend that publicans go and investigate at their local branch or get in touch with their local Sales Manager to see how Batleys can help their business move forward in 2016.
